1. A large number of Soviet troops were arriving at Gorzow Wielkopolski (Landsberg) in April 1953. By 30 June 1953 nearly half the town had been evacuated of civilians and the homes were occupied by Soviet troops. Transports of arms and troops increased and informant counted 10 to 13 military transports arriving one night.
2. A large nylon factory¹ has been built in Gorzow. The factory employs about 4,000 workers.
1. [REDACTED] Comment: It seems more likely that Source is referring to a ladies hosiery factory rather than a nylon plant.
